LAW AND MOTION PROCEDURES

Civil law and motion is heard on Friday mornings at 9:30 a.m., in Courtroom A, 15th Floor, United States District Court, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer as described below regarding jurisdictional discovery and provide a joint letter to the Court no later than February 18, 2011.

In the event a discovery dispute arises, IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that before filing any discovery motion before this Court, the parties must comply with the following:

- 1           1.       Lead trial counsel for both parties must meet and confer in person regarding the 2           matter(s) at issue. This meeting shall occur after other efforts to resolve the dispute,
3           such as telephone, e-mail, teleconference, or correspondence, have been unsuccessful.
4           Once those efforts have proved unsuccessful, any party may demand a meeting of 5           lead trial counsel to resolve a discovery matter. Such a meeting shall occur within ten 6           (10) calendar days of the demand. The locations of the meetings shall alternate. The 7           first meeting shall be at a location selected by counsel for Plaintiff(s). If there are any 8           future disputes, the next such meeting shall be held at a location to be determined by 9           counsel for Defendant(s), etc.
- 10          2.       Within five (5) calendar days of the in-person meeting between lead trial counsel
11          referred to above, the parties shall jointly file a detailed letter with the Court, not to 12          exceed ten (10) pages without leave of Court, which will include the matters that 13          remain in dispute, a detailed substantive description of each side's position on each 14          such issue, and a description of each side's proposed compromise on each such issue.
- 15          3.       After the Court has received the joint letter, the Court will determine what future 16          proceedings, if any, are necessary.

17           In the event that the parties continue to be unable to resolve the matters regarding the timing
18           and scope of discovery, the Court will consider what future actions are necessary. These actions
19           may include the following: (1) sanctions against a party failing to cooperate in the discovery process
20           and meet and confer in good faith, as required by this Order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure,
21           and the Local Rules of this Court; and/or (2) requiring the Chief Executive Officers of each party to 22           attend the in-person, meet-and-confer sessions described above. The Court is not entering either of 23           these matters as an Order of the Court at this time, and fully expects counsel to meet their 24           obligations under this Order and under the Local Rules.

25           A party or counsel has a continuing duty to supplement the initial disclosure when required
26           under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e)(1).

27           Law and motion matters may be submitted without argument upon stipulation of the parties
28           and notification of the Court no later than 4:30 p.m. the day before the hearing. Pursuant to Civil L.

1 R. 7-7(e), filed motions may be withdrawn without leave of the Court, within seven (7) days of the 2 date for service of the opposition. Thereafter, leave of the Court must be sought.
